Mel Glazer presents

The FRANK SINATRA you never knew

So what does Frank Sinatra have to do with the Jewish community?

We're glad you asked!

Find out on Sunday, September 17th, 2017 at 7:00 PM

In the Moreida Auditorium

Admission: $10.00 per person, payable at the door.

Refreshments will be served.

Mel Glazer is a remarkable raconteur, who will tell true and funny inside stories you couldn't get in one, two, or even twenty books. Come and experience an evening of music and trivia, topped by a moving PowerPoint song and slide presentation. You'll hear about Sinatra's participation in "Action for Palestine," a rally to save Jews remaining in Europe in the 1940's; his Academy Award-winning short film, The House I Live In, to help fight anti-Semitism at the end of WW II; his role in getting arms from Newark to Israel in 1948; and his relationship with Teddy Kollek, the late Mayor of Jerusalem.

Please let us know if you plan to attend.
