מה יפה ירושתנו

"How beautiful is our heritage"

Women's League for Conservative Judaism understood more than 75 years ago that by supporting students at Conservative/Masorti institutions of higher Jewish learning they would be educating rabbis, cantors, and scholars who would become leaders of the Jewish world. They were looking ahead and ensuring the future of the Conservative/Masorti movement. Join the Garden State Region/WLCJ on Dec. 10th as we celebrate 75 years of Torah Fund and plan for the future.

Special Guest Speaker Anna Chapman

4th year Cantorial Student at the Jewish Theological Seminary

Anna Chapman is a fourth year cantorial student at JTS. Born in Brooklyn, New York, she has lived in New York City her entire life. Anna also has a background in visual art and photography and has also been an art teacher. Anna grew up loving music, plays the piano, the ukulele and is learning the guitar. She also loves choral music and sings in the H.L. Miller Cantorial school choir. This year she is serving as the Student Cantor at Cong. Beth El in New London, CT.
