MESSAGE FROM SHEILA KAUFMAN, GSR PRESIDENT

Dear Traci,

Shalom!

This month we celebrate International Women's Day, which happens to be this Saturday, March 8th and Purim a few days later. International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating women's equality. So what are you doing for it? Women's League is honoring WLCJ Sisters for Women's History Month. Visit WLCJs social media pages to follow, like, and share the women we honor this month! Check out their Facebook and Instagram pages and you will see the current and Past International Presidents. My company is noting a special day highlighting the five major directors who all happen to be women. Is your Sisterhood or synagogue celebrating this special day? I know mine is to a certain degree, we are sponsoring a synagogue-wide Shabbat dinner celebrating Purim with a Vashti's banquet style and the women of our sisterhood culminating with Sisterhood Shabbat/Torah Fund combo! It is all about the women this month!

Send us your Women's Day celebrations and we will post them in the next Newsletter!

Voting for the World Zionist Congress opens March 10 and ends May 4, 2025. Please look below for more information or click here. At the next World Zionist Congress, MERCAZ USA will advocate for Conservative/Masorti Jews, guided by our beliefs in equality, democracy, and pluralism.

Please send in your sisterhood program flyers that you want to invite others to as well as a couple of photos from your programs to Traci Sachs and myself for inclusion in our Newsletters and it will be forwarded to be included on our website. If you noticed, we are sending an eblast of programs during the week between Newsletters. So take advantage of us and our outreach. If you have a program please invite myself and Sindy Manas, if it is a Torah Fund program, we would love to come!

May the hostages continue to come home to their loved ones.

Ahm Yisrael Chai,

Sheila

Reflections on our trip to Israel: The Land, Zionism, and Resilience

In Genesis, God tells Avram, "Go forth...to the land that I will show you." For thousands of years, The Land—now called Israel—has been more than a homeland. It is a living, breathing testament to the resilience, faith, and determination of the Jewish people. I just returned from The Land after a trip representing Women's League on the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations' 50th mission to Israel. During that trip, I witnessed firsthand the strength of Israelis, particularly in the agricultural communities of the kibbutzim, who have endured immense suffering since the attacks of October 7, 2023.

One of the most profound aspects of Zionism is the intimate relationship between the people and the land of Israel. Nowhere is this more evident than in the farming communities of the South, including Kibbutz Nir Oz. Seventy percent of the fresh produce in Israel comes from Nir Oz and other kibbutzim in this region. However, the events of October 7 brought devastation beyond imagination to both the people and the land.

(A virtual project of MAZON)

 ONLINE

THE HUNGER MUSEUM

Regardless of a person's circumstance, no one deserves to be hungry. Today, a staggering number of Americans struggle to put food on the table. The Hunger Museum explores how we got here as a nation, telling the story of the last 100+ years of U.S. hunger and anti-hunger public policy, alongside the cultural touchstones that accompany that history.

With a robust government response, we can end hunger, and almost did. Join us to learn about this as a live docent takes us on a journey through history in MAZON's virtual Hunger Museum.
